

When creating my resource which is a virtual machine, I chose South Africa North (Zone 1) as the location.

The VM is an infrastructure as a Service because the cloud provider only provides processor, storage and networking for the virtual machine.

The cloud consumer is responsible for the other components of the computing stacks.